There is a cherry-tree leaf in Ironton two feet wide and four feet long. Let some agricultural district best this, if it can!

WANTED!-100 Cords of Wood, at $2.50 per WM. P. McCARVER, West Main St., Ironton, Mo.

ICE CREAM-Every Sunday afternoon and evening, at F. Osterle's Restaurant,-one door north of Lopez's. Will sell by the dish or quart.

From Friday to Monday, the mercury in the theymometer was up in the nineties, but Monday night a storm from the north knocked the heat endways, and since then the cool breezes have been fanning our noble brow.

The children of the Valley return their most sincere thanks to the public in general, and more especially to their friends who so generously responded to their call.

The net receipts of the Festival amounted to $55.25.

Judge Russell is repairing the bridge across Knob Creek just north of Ironton, to the delight of all pedestrians whose business calls them to cross this modern Rubicon. We call it repairing, though in effect it makes a new bridge out of the old.

At its meeting last Saturday evening, the Young Men's Literary Club elected the following named persons as its officers: John D. Greason, President; William B. Newman, Censor Morum; Albert T. Ake, Secretary; Fred. Wilkinson, Treasurer.

The railroad company is laying a switch to the new furnace at Pilot Knob, to be used in the transportation of charcoal from the lower portion of the county. With this switch, the coal will be taken direct to the furnace stack, and dumped all ready for use.

The card of Mrs. Dr. Gideon, Homeopathic Physician, will be found in this issue. Mrs. Gideon has settled down permanently in Ironton, and we recommend her to those who have need of doctors' services. They will find her attentive and capable.

ATTENTION .- Wednesday evening of every week there will be ice-cream and cake served at Mr. Hotson's restaurant, by the ladies of the M. E. Church for the purpose of paying off balance of debt due on parsonage. Come one, come all, and lend a helping hand.

The attention of the City Fathers is directed to the condition of the sidewalk in front of Carter's livery stable. There are several mantraps about there, and some unwary pedestrian may be caught in one of them some fine, dark night. Then the city will have a nice little damage suit on hand.

The entire wheat crop of this county will be harvested by the end of this week. It is, generally speaking, good, although some fields were considerably damaged by the rust. The increased average will give us a larger yield than that of any previous year. Oats are looking well and the crop promises to be ex-· cellent

The Young Men's Literary Club respectfully invite the public in general to their next regular meeting, to be held at the Good Templars' Hall, Tuesday evening, June 224. There will be singing, music, debating, reading, installation of officers, etc. We hope to see a good attendance, as this meeting has been gotten up not only to encourage the members, but to give the public a nice evening's enjoyment. There will be no charges for admission.

THE FOURTH OF JULY-Is coming, and in view of the fact that no other celebration of the National Holiday has been set a foot by our people, the Brass Band will take the matter in hand, and do what it can to provide amusement for our friends on that occasion The arrangements are now being perfected, and Goulding's Park has been secured, but we cannot state exactly, in this issue, what amusements will be presented. Next week. however, we shall be able to give the full programme.

We note with pleasure that our old friend, Geo. Spitzmiller, Esq., of Pilot Knob, is flourishing. He has lately joined in with M. Ebrecht, a first class wagon-maker, and the two are able and competent to fill all orders with promptness. George is known all over the county as a good blacksmith, and as for horse-shoeing, he doesn't acknowledge a superior anywhere. We are glad to know that he is receiving the patronage he so well deserves and hope he may continue until he shall find himself rich enough to buy out the Pilot Knob Iron Company, if he wants to.

Rob't Hotson desires us to tell the public generally that he will hereafter, during the season of 1880, have Ice-Cream on hand for sale at his restaurant, every day and night of the week, except Sunday. He will furnish this delicacy by the plate, quart or gallon-in the larger quantities, at very low rates. He will also keep a supply of the various fruits of the season. Restaurant, south side courthouse aguare. tf

On Thursday afternoon, Mr. Hotson will have a stand adjacent to the College grounds in Arcadis, and furnish the ice-cream and lemonade, etc., which visitors to the school may desire.

We learn that our young friend, J. F. Cooley, Esq., of Farmington, is a candidate for Prosecuting Attorney for St. Francois county, with an excellent prospect for election. We have known Frank for a long time, and can recommend him to our friends "over there" as a good subject for their suffrages. He is a rising young lawyer, a sound Demoerat, and possessed of the Jeffersonian requisites. He will, of course, run subject to the Democratic Convention of St. Francols coun-We have lately lost faith in tow-lines. and never did go much on them in connection with newspaper offices; but, such as it is, Frank is entirely welcome to the use of

A new time-table went into effect on the I. M. R. R. last Sunday. No. 1 new leaves St. Louis at the Union Depot at 9 o'clock A. M., and arrives at Ironton at 12:38. No. 2 passes here at 8 o'clock A. M. The Sunday excursion arrives at Arcadia at 1:30 P. M., and starts on its return trip one hour later. Several changes have also been made in the time of the freights-one of which is decidedly the worse for this section. The "short train," which used to run so as to connect with the passenger trains on the Belmont Branch, thus enabling our people to travel to St. Louis or points south by daylight, now reaches Bismarck after the departure of those trains, and the unwary passenger has to "lay over" at that point from 1:10 P. M. until midright, before he can get a train north or south.

PERSONALS .- Mrs. L. Davis, Miss Miriam and Master Paul, returned from St. Louis Saturday. Miss Miriam and Master Paul have een there attending school.

Miss Fannie Greason, of Penn., who has been visiting her cousins at the Greason Farm, left for St. Louis Monday morning. Miss Fannie is a very amiable and accomplished young lady and we regret her departure from our midst.

Mrs. C. Brady is in town visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. T. Johnson, of Pledmont, who has been visiting relatives here, left for her home Fri-

Mrs. Dr. Gideon and Miss Etta returned to the Valley this week, and intend making this their permanent home.

SUMMER NECESSARIES .- The summer number of Ehrichs' Fashion Quarterly presents its readers with a magnificient chromo-lithograph picture, illustrative of the fashions of the season, and executed in the finest style. A full description of the costumes is given in the pages of the magazine.

Besides this, the Quarterly contains the usual installment of good things for the ladies, -illustrations and descriptions of suits for ladies, misses, and children of hair goods, tourist's articles, summer sports and pastimes, and hundreds of other items in every department of household economy. In every case things she ought to buy to be in the fashion, vention. but also what prices she should fairly be

Arcadia-A St. Louis Summer Resort.

[From the Bailroad Register.] South from St. Louis the distance of a pleas-ant morning's ride is a region in the foot-hills of the Ozark mountain range that seems to offer to weary and overheated citizens of the metropolis such a refuge as Rockaway Beach

sion train that runs regularly as soon as June suns begin to exercise their heating influence The trip is—thanks to the management of the road—an extremely cheap one, the route is one of the most charmingly diversified that could be chosen, and it will be strange if the present season does not witness trains of several sections filled with eager pleasure seekers taking in the beauties of a fresh and rugged landscape.

Iton Mountain and Pilot Knob, each renowned for its picturesqueness and its fabulout value, provoke an eager scrutiny as objects which it is worth going far to see, and soon the valley of Arcadia is reached, where a hait is made for dinner. The quaint hotel presided over by M.s. Roberson stands some little distance back from the station. It is reached by an ascending gravel path through a field fragrant with clover and roses, and there is no need to hurry, for there is a certainty of a good dinner at the other end and plenty of time to eat it in. Mrs. Roberson has made a well deserved reputation among travellers, excursionists and railroad men for good cookery, bright crockery and glassware and fresh linen. The cultivated fields adjoining furnish the vegetables, and a ride of nearly ninety miles is an excellent appetizer. Many families from St Louis and vicinity spend a portion of the summer here, the cottages in the vicinity affording them the privacy and conveniences which are lacking in many pre-tentious resorts, while they enjoy fresh moun-tain air and spring water that has no need for ice. Some of the cottages are attached to or under control of the hotel, but the liberal terms on which handsome grounds for building purposes are offered by the acre must lead to extensive building by private parties
